Principal's Report

Farewell Ms Dove

The past week has seen the departure of Ms Jennifer Dove, one of our highly valued secondary English teachers. Ms Dove has been at LRCS for five years and has proven herself to be an exemplary classroom teacher and when called upon, an excellent relieving Head Teacher. During her time here, Ms Dove has established close bonds and has been very supportive of the students in her care. Ms Dove has also been the recipient of the NSW Premier's English Teachers Scholarship Award and as such her efforts, talents and commitment to public education have been recognised beyond our own school community. On behalf of the whole school community I would like to thank Ms Dove for her contribution to our school and wish her well in her future endeavours.

CWA Young Writers Award

Ms Dove has been instrumental in encouraging and working with students to develop their creative writing skills and an example of this is the success of Katarina Thompson and Jada Seaton who recently won the Barwon CWA Short Stories Competition. Katarina and Jada were required to write a piece 500 -1000 words in length on the topic of "What's Next?". Jada and Katarina's work was deemed to be of such a high quality that they won the competition. Their work has been widely distributed to great acclaim. Congratulations Jada and Katarina and thank you to the Barwon CWA, in particular Maude Harrison for their support of our students.

School Leaders

High quality leadership is an important aspect of life on an international, national, local and school level. Outstanding leaders can make huge differences to the lives of the people they lead and student leaders are no different. On Tuesday 3rd November some of our Year 11 students nominated themselves for the positions of School Captains. In their speeches to students and staff they were required to outline what skills, qualities and attributes they would bring to these leadership positions and how they could make a positive impact on school life. I would like to congratulate Taleah Anderson, Trixie Condino, Tommi-Lee Gordon and Maxim Mc Master for putting themselves forward as candidates and making outstanding speeches. In the subsequent vote by students from year 6 to 11, Taleah Anderson and Tommi-Lee Gordon were elected School Captains for 2021. Congratulations to both girls and their families.

Year 6 to 7 Transition

A team of staff including myself, Mr Bonsing, Mr Britts and Miss Ravot have been working hard to review the procedures and processes we have in place for Year 6 to 7 Transition. Our aim in reviewing our processes is to make the change from Primary to Secondary School as smooth as possible, taking into account every student's academic, social and emotional needs. Students will have two orientation days in the secondary school on dates to be advised. Preceding this Year 6 students will be involved in a Q&A session where they ask questions of me and current Year 7 students about the challenges and joys of secondary school life.

I would like to invite Year 6 parents to a Zoom Meeting on Tuesday 17th November at 5.00pm. At that meeting you will be given information on our transition program, requirements for year 7 and loads of other information which will be useful to you in supporting your child's transition. You will also be given the opportunity to ask questions of myself and other staff.

In normal circumstances, the meeting would be face to face but in COVID we will be using Zoom. In the near future the school will be sending you an email with an invitation to the Zoom Meeting. Attached to that email will also be our Transition Handbook and other documents relevant to transition.

I please ask that if necessary that you update your email address on our school data base by ringing the office so that the meeting invitation goes to the correct address. I look forward to seeing you at the meeting.

Secondary Deputy Principal's Report

Students in stage 4 & 5 are sitting their Yearly Examinations next week. Students will be sitting exams in most subjects, it is especially important that students attend during this time. If your child is ill please contact the school so alternative arrangements can be made when they return. An illness and misadventure form should also be submitted. The information gathered from the Yearly Examinations will then be combined with class work and assessment tasks to inform our teachers regarding students achievements, this information will then be included in their reports.

Students have been working towards completing their VALID 8 online exam. This test is mandatory for NSW government schools and tests are marked externally, results will be sent to parents and the school. This is a diagnostic tool to assist in improving student outcomes in science and as a tool for program evaluation. The test is linked to the science syllabus and assesses what students know and can do in science. It also provides useful information about student attitudes towards science.

Week 5 is NAIDOC week. Our schools will celebrate this important week by completing in class activities during roll call.

Secondary students have been participating in DEAR each morning during quickstart or roll call. This is an important activity used to improve students reading and it provides an opportunity for students to have some quiet time before they attend their first class for the day. If anyone has some appropriate magazines they could share with our students please drop them into our front office.

Library Report

In Week 3 Primary students had the opportunity to watch a performance of one of the shortlisted books. The wonderful people from Books to Life brought to life for us "Hello Lighthouse". I was lucky enough to get to watch the production with Stage 2 and Kindergarten. The Paint the Ridge REaD Dhinawan even came over to watch it with us. Kindergarten and Stage 2 made themselves very comfortable on the beanbags in the library for their viewing.

It was great", "I loved the whales", "The songs were so funny", "I wish they could have been here"

Were just some of the wonderful reviews the students had for the performance. Hopefully next year we can experience the performance in person.

The Paint the Ridge REaD team also kindly donated thirty packets of Lego to our school. Year two students were very excited to come and collect the Lego on behalf of their stage. The thirty packets were share among the Stage 1 classes.

Each newsletter there will be a question for each Stage, the student with the most correct answers from each stage will be given a $20 voucher to spend at the Book Fair. We have broken the questions into Stages to be fair to all students and to target questions to their typical reading level.

Student Voice

Around 500 million years ago, the whole area of Uluru became covered in sea. Sand and mud fell to the bottom and covered the seabed. The weight of the new seabed turned the sand and mud into rock. The sandy rock form slowly became sandstone (Uluru) while the rocky mud slowly became mixed rock (Kata Tjuta). The rock was called Uluru a long time before Europeans arrived in Australia. ...

In 1873, the explorer William Gosse became the first non-Aboriginal person to see Uluru. He named it Ayers Rock after Sir Henry Ayers, the Chief Secretary of South Australia at the time. In 1993, the name was changed to Ayers Rock to Uluru, acknowledging the Aboriginal name. Then in 2002, the names were switched around to prioritise the Aboriginal name. These days, while it's officially called Uluru / Ayers Rock, most people call it Uluru.

Uluru is 3.6 kms long and 1.9 kms wide, with a total circumference of 9.4kms. The incredible walk around the base takes you through a surprising variety of landscapes, and is best attempted in the morning before the desert heat sets in. Uluru is big, but most of its mass is buried under the surrounding desert. Uluru as we see it today was created by millions of years of erosion of the softer surrounding rock. Beneath the surface, Uluru extends at least another 2.5kms

Run Beyond Project

Beyond running. Beyond the finish line

True success is all about working towards meaningful goals and dreams. A number of students and staff at Lightning Ridge Central Schools made the commitment to train and participate in The Run Beyond Project. The Run Beyond Project aims to develop resistance and commitment in the next generation through a 5km fun run.

On Wednesday the 28th of October after a long day at school, students took a short bus trip to Benny Walford's Crossing, where students and staff replaced an aging memorial to Benny Walford. The new tribute was constructed by Rhonda Walford, under the supervision of David Pickard. Samuel Anderson assisted in the construction of the memorial.

Students then crossed the road to prepare for a 4pm start on their 5km journey. Throughout the duration of the fun run were two water stations that kept students hydrated on the 29-degree day. The sheer determination from every member of the school community was impressive, to say the least. Students completed the run at varying times; however, all students gave it their best shot! The what appeared to be an end-less journey concluded after a strenuous 50 minutes. We look forward to participating in The Run Beyond Project next year!

A massive congratulations to the following students who participated in The Run Beyond Project. Sara Allan, Storm Allan, Samuel Anderson, Noah Capper, Dusan Grugic, Keith King, Skye Noyes, Billy Roy-Frail and Sophie Small.

An additional thank you and congratulations to the following staff members who encouraged and supported the students in this fantastic achievement. Leon Allen, Krystal Allen, Darryl Bonsing, Jacob Crawley, Amy Deer, Jayden Goodall, Maude Harrison, Nicola Haverhoek, Anna Moxham, David Pickard, Bill Shannon, Emily Stewart

Stage 6

Year 11 Students attended the E-Vet course on tractors. They learned how to drive and manoeuvre tractors, attach and use 3 point linkage implements, Back trailers, use pallet forks and loader buckets all useful stuff. They all had fun and gave everything a go. Hopefully they will get to use these skills in the workplace.
