Term 3 Week 2 2023

Principal's Report

School: just about the best place a young person can rehearse for adult life. Previously I have written in these pages about the healthy sense of belonging and feelings of connectedness that relate to being part of something bigger. Such feelings are protective factors for mental health and wellbeing.

School is easily the biggest thing to which anyone aged 6 to 17 will belong. School is a safe place, easily the safest place kids can be. The expectations the school has of it's students are like the Rock of Gibraltar; steadfast.

What was expected of them yesterday is expected today and will be expected tomorrow. Be respectful. Be responsible. Work with Pride. All attributes valued in the wider community. School offers so much more than lessons in specific academic disciplines.

School offers a range of cultural and sporting opportunities too, many of which I have previously referred to in these pages.

All our staff look to build connections between the young people in our care, knowing that positive relationships foster school and broader community engagement.

The powerful benefits of connecting with friends in a shared space for a shared purpose, and the sense of belonging that such connection fosters, should never be underestimated.

Lessons are the core business of school. As a result, it is hard for any young person to do well academically if their attendance is patchy or worse, they simply do not turn up. Some young people, only a small but unfortunately not insignificant number – are "school refusers."

School refusal is a great short-term plan; sleep in, maybe eat a late breakfast then later still kick back with a little Xbox or PlayStation time... The real downside is that it is a plan that can have devastating consequences on life choices.

Studies have shown that students who refuse school, especially those who do not return to school, almost invariably experience poor life outcomes. These poor life outcomes include reduced employment prospects, issues maintaining social relationships, mental health challenges and homelessness.

At Lightning Ridge Central School, we are mindful of the need to put in place supports for disengaged students, including a number of return to school strategies and mentoring. The need for support begins with identification at our attendance team meetings.

A dedicated attendance officer is tasked with the initial contact once an issue of problematic attendance has been noted.

Continued

At times, the task of contacting home goes directly to our Learning Support or Attendance Teams, Student Support officers and Aboriginal Education Officers, as the issues may be more complex than just attendance. We work as a team.

When issues persist, the school will enlist the support of the Home School Liaison Program, based in Coonamble, or the Child Wellbeing Unit or the Department of Community Services.

On occasion, a request that local police conduct a welfare check is made where no home contact has been possible. We all demonstrate personal responsibility by meeting our commitments.

For the young people in our lives, this is often as simple as making their beds, assisting with chores at home, packing their school bags before heading off to school and, of course, attending school every day it is open and they are fit enough to do so. These are all reasonable expectations and when met, demonstrate an acceptance of personal responsibility.

School is just about the best place a young person can rehearse the social and emotional skills they will need to be well functioning adults.

At Lightning Ridge Central School, the environment is well controlled, and a variety of support measures are in place to foster this development; measures that permit the development of social competence, as well as bouncing back from friendship difficulties. The important thing is that students attend as often as possible because, as was indicated above, it is hard to do well at school if you don't turn up.

If for any reason your child must miss school, there are things you can do to ensure they don't fall too far behind. You can:

- Speak with your child's teachers and find out what work your child needs to do to keep up.
- Develop an absence learning plan with your child and ensure your child completes the plan. If your child must miss school for an extended period, let us know as early as possible.

Legally, absences explained more than seven school days after the first day of absence are recorded as unexplained. The software employed by the NSW Department of Education does not allow for any school discretion in this situation. A message via an email or a quick phone call are two ways in which parents and carers can explain absences. As always, thanks for your continuing support.

Secondary Deputy Principal's Report

Welcome back to Term 3!

Staff commenced this Term with training regarding the Aquaponics system, staff are excited to get more involved in this project and teach students about the world of Aquaponics. Ask your child if they have visited the Aquaponics unit recently and get them to explain to you how it operates.

In week 2, students in Year 10 will be presented with information about SBAT's – School Based traineeships, students will learn how traineeships operate and the range of traineeships available. This will be followed by subject selections for 2024 Year 11 students. Year 10 students will be provided with information to guide them in their selection of subjects for senior school.

Students in Year 12 have only a few weeks left before they will sit their trial examinations. Final class assessments are now being completed then students MUST focus on their examinations, which will be held in Week 6. This examination is very important for the students as it will impact on their HSC and it gives students an indication as to their anticipated HSC result. Please discuss with your child their study timetable. At this time of the year students tend to loose motivation, and yet they are so close to completing their secondary education.

The theme for Education Week (31st July to 4th August 2023) is 'Proud and Public' celebrating 175 years of public education in NSW. At LRCS we are planning an exciting event, stay tuned for further information.

The annual Parent teacher interviews will be occurring during Week 3 on Tuesday 1st August. Please contact the office to make an appointment with your child's teacher.

We are also celebrating Education Week, highlighting the importance of learning and the achievements of our students. Additionally, our much-loved Healthy Harold is visiting our school to share valuable lessons on health and well-being.

Stage 3 students will embark on a thrilling adventure at the Great Aussie Bush Camp in Lake Macquarie in Week 4, fostering resilience and teamwork in the great outdoors. Please ensure payments for this camp are up to date.

Stage 1

Students in S1B have started our geography unit which currently focuses on weather and seasons. Students have enjoyed learning about Lightning Ridge's unique weather patterns compared to other areas in Australia and worldwide. Students have also been learning about the different types of activities they can do depending on the weather and the appropriate clothing that should be utilised.

S1D, S1B and S1Y have had a busy and exciting first week of Term 3!

On Tuesday, Stage 1 participated in the Aquaponic Information Session. Captain Crackers showed the students a starfish, seaweed, a Captain's watch and scuba diving packs. Stage 1 loved the hands-on learning opportunity! Captain Crackers also taught the students about the importance of keeping the ocean clean, and ensuring our rubbish goes in the bin.

Students have settled back into school routines beautifully. Our first lesson on Tuesday was InitialLit, check out these hard-working students!

The teachers cannot wait to see what else Stage 1 can achieve as the year progresses.

Visual Arts

Year 11 have been busy working on hyper-realism portrait drawings using graphite pencils. The portraits are mostly of the students' family members - as they were assigned to draw someone they most admire in their life.

The incredible animal eye drawings are drawn by year 8 students. At Lightning Ridge Central School, students start visual art class from year 8. This is their very first art project. They use a 'grid drawing' method to learn fundamental drawing skills.

Celebrating NAIDOC Week

One of the highlights of NAIDOC Week for students is the opportunity to participate in cultural workshops and demonstrations.

LRCS invited local Indigenous elders and community members to share their knowledge and traditions. From storytelling and traditional dance to weaving and didgeridoo playing, students immersed themselves in the beauty and significance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art forms. The interactions with these esteemed individuals not only deepen their understanding but also foster a strong sense of respect and appreciation for Indigenous cultures.

New Senior School Uniform

Parents of Secondary Students, you asked and we listened!

Following the feedback we've received from parents to remove the white and red/black/white polo t-shirts from our uniform, Lightning Ridge Central School have taken this on board and along with the P&C Committee, SRC and numerous student surveys we are changing our secondary school uniform.

It was noted in the feedback that the white polo's were impractical, hot and hard to keep clean and that the white polo's didn't align with the traditional school colours. After many months of back-and-forth, the design team have come up with a fresh new secondary polo that was voted upon by the P&C Committee, Secondary SRC and Secondary Students.

What this means for you..

This is an exciting time for Lightning Ridge Central School and respectfully we recognise that purchasing a new uniform is a cost that some families are not prepared for, so to ease the financial burden we will provide a one-off allocation of 2 free polo's per secondary student.

Year 11 & 12 Seniors

Red and black cotton/polyester blend polo with white school emblem, Lightning Ridge CS print around the collar and features bold white seniors print.

As we begin the roll out of our new polo's, our seniors have received their new polo's this week and are excitedly wearing them to school each day with pride. (Pictured Parker, Nick, Torin, Chanel and Emily)

Year 7-10

Red and black cotton/polyester blend polo with white school emblem and Lightning Ridge CS print around the collar.

Year 7-10 students will receive their new polo's at the beginning 2024.

Along with this new exciting uniform, comes a uniform policy where the expectation is that our students will wear their full school uniform to school every day. Students will continue to wear a black Jumper and black pants, shorts or skirt (please no leggings or tights) and can continue to wear their white and red/black and white polo's.

As an extra incentive for students to wear their uniform daily and once the uniform rollout is complete, staff will record students who are wearing school uniform and those students will go into the draw for prizes such as reward days, tickets into a major prize draw or even a monetary percentage off your child's school excursion!

We welcome your feedback! If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to come along to the next P&C Meeting held on Tuesday 1st August.

Industry Pathway Project

Last Term 12 students from Walgett and Lightning Ridge completed a shearing and crutching school instructed by Tafe NSW with the generous land owners providing a shearing shed and 300 sheep.

The shearing and wool industry has a labour shortage due to the pandemic and older shearers leaving the industry. This has caused major financial losses to the producers who are unable to source reliable and qualified contractors in required time frames.

From this school, students are now working with local contractors and Australian Wool Innovation (AWI) to complete work experience in shearing and wool handling.

Locally shearing and wool handling is a viable employment pathway with many students wanting to maintain their cultural identity on country.
